1. Amendments to your entry

You will be notified when the updates have been made to your online entry so that amendments or corrections can be done. We are very happy to update the information over time to keep your business information up to date. However, if the level of amendments becomes too high, you may incur an administration charge of £30.

2. Updating the information we hold on you

If you are renewing your Partner Plan or indeed at any time, please check your listing at www.visitpewseyvale.co.uk to make sure that the details are still up to date and accurate. In particular please check:

- Your contact details
- Your description details
- Any grading or quality information is up to date
- Any price information is accurate
- Photos are still up to date

If you wish to correct or change anything please email susie@visitpewseyvale.co.uk at any time.
